

Military Appreciation Week

Thank you for taking part in Royal Navy & Royal Marines Charity
Military Appreciation Week.

Celebrate the works of our Armed Forces: Army, Royal Airforce, Royal Navy, Royal Marines and also Royal Fleet Auxiliary.

Thank veterans for their service.

Think about families of serving personnel.

Royal Navy & Royal Marines Charity (RNRMC) is the principal charity of the Royal Navy. We are at the heart of supporting our Royal Navy, Royal Marines and Royal Fleet Auxiliary personnel and their families, past, present and future.

Since 2007, RNRMC has funded projects and facilities that boost morale for those who serve today. RNRMC supports organisations and charities which care for serving personnel, children, families and veterans of the Royal Navy, Royal Marines and Royal Fleet Auxiliary.

Beneficiaries lie at the heart of RNRMC's purpose, it is our duty to remain focused on their needs.

OUR VISION: A world in which our sailors, marines, and their families are valued and supported, for life.

OUR MISSION: To raise funds, working with others, to provide the support needed to our serving and former members of the Naval Service and their families.

Being in the Royal Navy, Royal Marines and Royal Fleet Auxiliary can be a wonderful career.

There are many different jobs people can do, such as being a pilot, a Royal Marine commando , a submariner, an engineer, a chef or a nurse. Training is provided free of charge and there is a great pension scheme.

You get to travel to exciting places and see the world.

You aren't just needed in times of war, you are there to keep the peace, keep shipping lanes open, provide humanitarian aid, stop drug trafficking, prevent piracy and keep the UK safe.

However, there can be times when life is difficult, especially for families who are separated when loved ones are deployed, or if people get injured or sick. For some, the time they need help and support most is when they leave the service, or when they are elderly.

RNRMC is there to support all the naval service family.

Discussion points:

- Do you know someone in the Armed Forces, a friend or a family member?
- What is a veteran?
- Why is it important to have a military force?
- What challenges might a child with a parent or parents in the armed forces face?
- Would you consider a future career in the Armed Forces?

Why RNRMC need your help

Each year the charity gives out £6-£9 million in grants to help the naval service family.

They need to fundraise more each year as demand on their support is increasing.

By taking part in Royal Navy & Royal Marines Charity Military Appreciation week you are not only celebrating the work of the armed forces, but you are helping to fundraise so that we can provide more support.
