FOR ALL AGES

Thank you for helping us.

At the RNRMC we produce a wide range of materials to tell people about our services and to raise money for our work. From time to time we will take photographs of individuals and groups, audio and video clips and use case studies which can include these images and personal data, such as name, and any details provided regarding your relationship with the Naval Service.

- stored and used for up to a period of five years, for the purpose of making our media applications more accessible, inspiring, and motivating for our audience;
- used to promote or advertise the aims of RNRMC, which may include our printed publications; website; adverts; audiovisual and electronic materials; media work; display materials; briefing of staff, potential donors and agency partners; and any other media we may use in the future;
- be kept securely and only shared with our suppliers or partners who work on our behalf and
- (It may also be) made available for the RNRMC fundraisers to assist us in delivering our charitable.

Image consent can be changed or withdrawn at any time by notifying the RNRMC in writing however, once information is placed on the internet, we do lose a degree of control over the distribution and retrieval of such information. This could mean that even if we stop using your images it is possible that it may still be available on the internet. Therefore, please keep this in mind when providing consent. RNRMC will never share details with third parties without your express written consent unless by legal requirement

Thank you again for your help.

Please tick this box if you agree to your image being used as described above.
